I.A. No. 1434 of 2019	-----

6/ 16.04.2019                      Heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned counsel for the State on the interlocutory application for granting bail, during the pendency of this appeal.

The appellant has been convicted and sentenced for the offences under Sections 364, 302, 201 / 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The case relates to murder of a child, who was kidnapped. The case was instituted against unknown after the dead body of the deceased was found in a gunny bag. During course of investigation, it appeared that the child was kidnapped for sacrifice and the confessional statement of accused persons, including this appellant, had led to the recovery of the sword, which was used in the sacrifice of the child. It has also come in the confessional statement of this appellant that he had taken active part in kidnapping the child.

Earlier prayer for bail of this appellant was rejected on merits. Learned counsel for the appellant renewed the prayer for bail of the appellant.

In the facts of this case, we are not inclined to release appellant Nathan Turiya, on bail. Accordingly, his prayer for bail is rejected.

This interlocutory application stands dismissed.
