He further submit that upon filing of such application by the Investigating Agency, the right of applicant accused to oppose such application on merits may be kept open. Learned advocate, therefore, submitted that considering the above facts, the applicant may be granted anticipatory bail.

5. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent - State has opposed grant of anticipatory bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.

6. Having heard the learned advocates for the parties and perusing the material placed on record and taking into consideration the facts of the case, nature of allegations, gravity of offences, role attributed to the accused, without discussing the evidence in detail, at this stage, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant.

7. This Court has considered following aspects,

(a) it is submitted by the learned advocate for the applicant that for the alleged incident, which took place on 25.07.2021, the FIR is lodged on 31.05.2021. Thus, there is a delay of 5 days in lodging the FIR;

(b) I have considered the role attributed to the applicant;

(c) it is submitted that the offence punishable under Section 354A is a bailable offence;

(d) it is submitted by the learned advocate for R/CR.MA/15681/2021 ORDER DATED: 03/09/2021 the applicant that even otherwise, now, the dispute is amicably settled with the first informant and, therefore, the first informant has filed an affidavit which is taken on record. It is stated in the said affidavit that if the applicant is enlarged on anticipatory bail, the first informant has no objection;

In the facts and circumstances of the present case, since the custodial interrogation of the applicant is not required, I am inclined to consider the case of the applicant.

8. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Siddharam Satlingappa Mhetre Vs. State of Maharashtra and Ors., reported at [2011] 1 SCC 694, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court reiterated the law laid down by the Constitution Bench in the case of Shri Gurubaksh Singh Sibbia & Ors. 9. In the result, the present application is allowed.

The applicant is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest in connection with a FIR being C.R. The applicant shall remain present before the learned Magistrate on the first date of hearing of such application and on all subsequent occasions, as may be directed by the learned Magistrate. This would be sufficient to treat the accused in the judicial custody for the purpose of entertaining application of the prosecution for police remand. This is, however, without prejudice to the right of the accused to seek stay against an order of remand, if, ultimately, granted, and the power of R/CR.MA/15681/2021 ORDER DATED: 03/09/2021 the learned Magistrate to consider such a request in accordance with law.
